"See Something Say Something"

On Friday, April 19, 2019, about 5:03 pm, Indio Police responded to California Bank & Trust, 80-250 Hwy 111, reference an armed bank robbery incident that had just occurred.

Upon arrival, Officers were told by the bank staff a white male adult entered the front doors of the bank carrying a gray zippered portfolio folder. The suspect was described as looking disheveled and spoke softly in English when he contacted the bank tellers. The suspect opened the folder he was carrying to display a black handgun lying inside the folder and demanded the money from the bank tellers. The suspect exited the bank then walked eastbound on Hwy 111 from the bank and was last seen running northbound through the dirt lot on the eastside between the bank and the Jackalope Ranch Restaurant. No one was injured during the incident and the investigation is ongoing at this time.

The Indio Police Department is asking for anyone who has information about the armed bank robbery to please call the Indio Police Department at (760) 391-4057, or call Coachella Valley Crime Stoppers at (760) 341-STOP with anonymous information.
